

TAMPA FALL MUSIC GAMES AT RIVERVIEW HIGH SCHOOL

Dear Parents,

October 10, 2022

On Saturday, October 22, 2022 the DHS Cougar Pride Marching Band will be participating in a FMBC Regional event at Riverview High School. This is the band's final competitive performance of the season and having a large crowd in the stands will add to the band's energy on the field! To help you plan for the day, a schedule and several reminders can be found below:

- Please be sure to have the following items with you when you arrive Saturday morning for rehearsal:
 - INSTRUMENTS & EQUIPMENT! That includes sticks and mallets for percussion!
 - water cooler
 - lunch – you will have a lunch break after rehearsal
 - uniform shorts
 - TILT! shirts
 - black socks & Dinkles
 - gloves or wristbands for percussion
 - DHS Sunglasses (if you plan to wear them at Riverview)
 - guard uniforms, tights, jazz shoes, and all make-up
- All CPMB members will travel to and from Riverview by approved HCPS school busses. Students will not be permitted to ride with family or friends – we are one band, and we will travel as such!
- All CPMB members are expected to wear their TILT! shirts underneath their uniforms. We will be taking our jackets off after our performance and looking uniform is important.
- Our students will have ample time to visit the concession stand after our performance. Please make sure to bring some cash!
- Students with long hair (this includes front ensemble) will need to have their hair styled in the same manner.
- No make-up or jewelry will be allowed so please leave jewelry at home! Guard your show make-up does not count.
- For information on admission prices, parking, and other show related details, please follow the link to Riverview's event website: Tampa Bay Fall Music Games.
